Tribity scored on cook's low punt which Yule muffed, Howelt recovering it for a touch-down. New York was too scared after that lucky affair to attempt straight football and punted continually. In the fourth quarter, when the New York sympathizers feared a shutout, New York scored through dashing and brilliant play. Booth went in at end in Crawford's place, whose lame shoulder gave out. New York when on the 42 yard line tried a forward pass which bounced off Ahearn's helmet and rolled on to Trinity's 8 yard line, where Henneberger recovered it. At this point New York fumbled for a loss of five yards, leaving the ball on the 13 yard line. Then New York carried the ball over on straight line bucks. Yule kicked the goal.
